Please join us for this quarterly gathering of the GME community. We’re pleased to welcome Dr. David Goodman of the Geisel School of Medicine at Dartmouth College. Dr. Goodman’s primary research interest is the relationship of outcomes to health workforce supply and its implications for health workforce policy. In his role as Co-PI of the Dartmouth Atlas of Health Care, he also leads and mentors a wider range of projects investigating the causes and consequences of variation in health care capacity and utilization. Dr. Goodman is the founder, with Professor Gwyn Bevan (London School of Economics), of the Wennberg International Collaborative, a research network that advances the study of unwarranted medical practice variation.
