Questions to Promote Problem-Solving

DIAGNOSIS: “What do you think is going on?”

BROADENING: “What are other causes of ……….?“

JUSTIFYING: “What is it about this patient that suggests ……….?“

HYPOTHETICAL: “If this patient were HIV-positive, might that change the differential diagnosis?”

ALTERNATIVE: “What might happen if we treat now, versus wait until we have the results of the x-ray?”

Questions to Promote Problem-Solving

DIAGNOSIS: “What do you think is going on?”

BROADENING: “What are other causes of ……….?“

JUSTIFYING: “What is it about this patient that suggests ……….?“

HYPOTHETICAL: “If this patient were HIV-positive, might that change the differential diagnosis?”

ALTERNATIVE: “What might happen if we treat now, versus wait until we have the results of the x-ray?”